

ANSWERS

1. Clarkee, logo of the Clark Rubber Company
2. Bob Carr, Labour Premier of New South Wales 1995 – 2005, Federal Senator for NSW 2012/3
3. Simon Baker, Australian actor and director; best known for his lead TV roles in The Mentalist and The Guardian as well as several Hollywood films.
4. Judith Durham of The Seekers
5. Ellen Degeneres, Portia Di Rossi. Portia was born Amanda Lee Rogers in Horsham, Victoria, and subsequently raised in Geelong. She had careers as model and actress but is now a businesswoman. She married Ellen Degeneres in 2008, taking the name Portia Lee James DeGeneres.
6. Rebecca June Hewitt is an Australian actress and singer, known professionally as Bec Cartwright before her marriage to tennis pro Lleyton Hewitt.
7. Actress / comedienne Noeline Brown
8. The city of Perth on the Swan River.
9. Australian musical group Mental as Anything.
10. Geelong, Cunningham Pier on Corio Bay foreshore
11. Singer/songwriter Paul Kelly
12. Jack (The Golden Bear) Niklaus and Greg (The Great White Shark) Norman, golfers of some repute.
13. Russell Morris, who started singing professionally in the 1960s and is still going strong.
14. Comedians Shane Bourne and Maurie Fields in their regular Hey Hey It's Saturday segment.
15. Miranda Kerr, supermodel

16. Nick Cave AO (born in Warracknabeal Victoria) is a singer, songwriter, author, screenwriter, composer and occasional actor.

17. Eric Bana, Australian actor, formerly known as a TV sketch comedian; here in the role of Hector, Prince of the Trojans in the film Troy.

18. Brian Mannix, singer and personality, formally lead singer of The Uncanny X-Men

19. Caroline Jones, TV journalist with the ABC since 1963, featuring in This Day Tonight and Four Corners, her most recent regular to-air gig being presenter of Australian Story, which she relinquished in 2016.

20. Jimmy Little, Aboriginal musician, actor and teacher from the Yorta Yorta people who was raised on the Cummeragunja Reserve, New South Wales. His career spanned six decades until his death in 2011.