

ANSWERS

1. Dick Smith and Phillip Adams
2. Cartoonist - Stan Cross; caption – "For Gorsake stop laughing. This is Serious"
3. Musician James Reyne, who first came to attention as lead singer of Australian Crawl.
4. Old Melbourne Jail
5. Red Symons, here in his persona as guitarist for Skyhooks
6. A young Billy Hughes, one-time Prime Minister of Australia
7. Tennis pro Mark Phillippousis
8. Scienceworks, with the West Gate Bridge in the background
9. Fashion designer Carla Zampatti
10. Wrest Point Casino Hobart
11. Tom Slingsby, competitive sailor; winner of three consecutive world championships and a 2012 Olympic gold medal
12. Singer-songwriter Katie Noonan
13. Rick Springfield, first famous as guitarist of the Brisbane group Zoot, then in America as a musician and TV Soap actor
14. Actor Richard Roxburgh, probably best known as the flawed barrister Cleaver Greene in the TV series Rake
15. Jane Flemming, Olympic track-and-field athlete and winner of two gold and two silver Commonwealth Games medals. She later worked as a TV sports commentator, and has been business manager for such high-profile international athletes as Sebastian Coe, Daley Thompson and Michael Johnson
16. Heath Ledger, film actor

17. Wendy Harmer, author, children's writer, playwright and dramatist, comedian, television personality and host of ABC Radio Sydney's Morning radio program.

18. Mary Coustas, actress, comedian and television personality and writer, here in her recurring role as Effie.

19. Actor Guy Pearce

20. Max Gillies, actor and a founding member of the 1970s experimental theatre company, the Australian Performing Group; became widely known with the politically satirical TV series The Gillies Report